School Advisory Committee (SAC)

Ms Papke updated on the new construction, construction company has reported everything is on target for the school opening on time. There is no plan B but the board is working on a backup plan.

Questions; Will there be a fence?

Answer- yes there will be fence around the property as well as around the retention pond.

When can we start to move items over?

The date is not known yet but as we get closer that information will be more clear.

Budget

Current balance is $5660.00

PTO Board is in the process of verifying finances and making sure any PTO income is being allocated appropriately (box tops, amazon smile donation etc).

New Business

- Grandparents Day Friday May 4th- possibly bringing "grandparents" from the retirement home for those that don't have grandparents available to attend. Time is 8:30-12 (ending time depends on each classroom) Teachers are making their individual schedules for the day.
- May festival- May 5th Volunteers will be needed for arts and crafts table, setup, clean up as well as help with traffic. Sign up genius will be going out for volunteers. Signups will be coordinated with San Jose to share time slots and items to be donated. Caitlynn Carol is POC for May festival.
- Spirit nights- On both May 8th and May 28th we will have spirit nights at Brucci's at Beach and Hodges from 5-7, Volunteers will be needed to help serve. PTO raises profit thru tips received. Leanna Weist is POC.
- Bylaw revision- Current bylaws are 5 years old and there is a need to revise them. The increase in our schools as well as changes over the years have made a few points outdated. Bylaws revision committee is meeting April 8th to look over changes. Any suggestions are welcome- you can email ideas/suggestions to seasidebeachespto@gmail.com

Committee Reports

- Fundraising committee- Committee is meeting virtually April 5th. If you have ideas for spirit nights, please collect a contact name and number for the event and submit it to Lindsay Baltozer @ Lindsay.baltozer@gmail.com Formal submission forms will be generated to help share ideas. Big fundraisers are going to be held off until the 2018-2019 school year.
- A spirit night has been planned for homespun kitchen on April 25th. This is an amazing opportunity for Seaside as they have offered to donate 100% of the profits for that day. Spread the word and attend if possible. Families will be given coupons to bring the day of to be attached to receipts so they can keep track of fundraiser attendees. event will go on all day, so stop by at whatever time is convenient for your family- just bring your ticket.
- An adventure landing fundraiser has been planned for May 17th. We will have the opportunity to buy and sell tickets to attend. The event allows for unlimited dry activities during the specified time. Price is TBD. More info to follow
- *The concern was raised about too many fundraisers happening right now. The plan for next school year is to limit spirit nights to 1 or 2 a month. Right now we are trying to make up for lost time and have a lot of families excited to attend.
- Health and wellness- The committee is putting together a health and wellness newsletter. If you have any specific information you would like to have shared please email Leah @lksenzakovic@yahoo.com
- Marketing and PR-POC is Jessica Morgan The committee has been out in place to support committees and make fliers as needed. This committee's plan is to help with internal communication throughout the school.
- Festivals & events- The current committee is still being put together. They are currently looking for vendors and booths for the May festival. The cost is $25 to have a booth. Laurie Roll is POC for vendor booths admin@seasidecharter.org A list of current vendors is being compiled. Food trucks have been acquired. Food trucks are not paying a fee but that will be considered for upcoming events. Caitlin Carroll is the POC for festival and events committee.
- Sunshine- Erica Harnek spoke about the committees responsibilities- they include; organizing meal trains, planning a teacher birthday recognition, administer and teacher appreciation week, food pantry for kids who have forgotten a lunch or just need a little extra in their lunch. The committee would also like to acknowledge teachers who attend training to better our school. Committee has 16 members and will meet Friday April 13th at 8:45 am at the school if you would like to join or attend please do. Teacher appreciation week is May 7-11th, a sign up genius will be sent out to volunteer to bring a needed item.
- School service project committee- Zuzia Thorpe has contacted the committee members, they would like Seaside to be more visible in the community thru service projects, a few ideas collected were food drives, helping with a refugee group, reading to animals at the humane society, senior center visits, One Heart Jax as well as many other great ideas.
- Volunteer Coordinator- Leslie Lane will notify families when the makeup picture day is scheduled. Yearbook ads are still being collected and we are still in need of ads.
